As an alumni of SDRM I can say this program can change an individual's life. I have also been through 2 other programs whom's purpose was a business or for profit. Money before the recovery and we'll being of their clients. During my 13 months at the SDRM I was never asked for money or rent. Rather was allowed to work and save money. I moved out the following month after graduation in the fall of 2018. While at the SDRM I found a home church, a support network and I still attend church and serve in my church. The SDRM gives individuals the tools and opportunities to better themselves. I have been employed at the San Diego Convention Center for 3 years and have remained sober and rent a private room today. Sincerely, Ryan Davis.
