

CROSSWORD
INSIDE!

As you age, you may need to rely more on walking in order to get around. In order to maintain your safety while walking - whether you are walking for exercise or to run errands, here are a few safety tips to keep in mind:

- Stay alert! Be aware of your surroundings.
- Always use a crosswalk and pedestrian push buttons.
- Wear light-colored or reflective clothing in order to be seen by drivers.
- Make eye contact with the driver. Don't assume the vehicle will stop.

BE AWARE, PEDESTRIANS DON'T HAVE ARMOR.

The California Office of Traffic Safety is providing this crossword puzzle as a fun way to test your knowledge of pedestrian safety terms. We hope that you'll find this information useful and remember it next time you are out for a walk or drive.
