Your Voice Matters: Help Us Gather More South Bay Resident Feedback!

The County of San Diego Parks and Recreation Department is asking the Parks Advisory Committee to help foster more responses from South Bay residents for our crucial online survey.

Here's How You Can Help:

1. Take the Survey: Share your thoughts and ideas about the proposed park if you are a South Bay resident. Your opinions matter!

2. Spread the Word: Encourage your friends, family, and neighbors in South Bay to participate. Every response counts! This survey is available online in English and in Spanish.

Let's ensure every South Bay resident's voice is heard. Thank you for your participation and for helping us reach more members of our community!

ABOUT OTAY VALLEY REGIONAL PARK

Otay Valley Regional Park (OVRP) is a multi-jurisdictional planning effort by the County and the cities of San Diego and Chula Vista.

The long-term vision for this park is for it to connect recreational park and trail land from the salt ponds at San Diego Bay to the land surrounding the Otay Lakes Reservoir. From playing fields and picnic areas to hiking.
