

Victor Arreola
Counselor/ Executive Director

Victor Arreola is going to fight for us! As a Homeowner in Olivewood and Graduate of Sweetwater High School, Mr. Arreola knows what it takes to keep our communities safe and protect our quality of life. His Leadership alongside his wife Erika Arreola has greatly impacted the people of National City and Sweetwater High School.

The Arreola's tireless work of counseling members of our community and Mentoring youth in Lincoln Acres is what we need to maintain our quality of life and at the same time show compassion for those that need a hand up.

Executive Director of a Non-profit in National City, Sweetwater High School Coach for many years are just a couple examples of his thirty-year dedication to our community.

Victor and Erika Arreola are what we need at City Hall.
